What a whirlwind these past few months have been! We are still on a high from the excitement of our production of We Will Rock You at the Plaza. Seeing the audience sing, dance, and cheer along with us was an unforgettable experience, and it's all thanks to the incredible support from each and every one of you. Your enthusiasm, encouragement, and attendance truly made the show shine.

As always, putting on a production of this scale takes a huge team effort, and we're so grateful to everyone our talented cast, hardworking crew, and supportive families who helped bring this vision to life.

It's been a fast-paced few months filled with rehearsals, preparations, and unforgettable moments both on stage and behind the scenes.

Looking ahead, there's so much more to get excited about! We have plenty of upcoming events, performances, and projects in the pipeline. Thank you again for being part of this journey, we couldn't do it without your support, and the best is yet to come!
